ACCEPTANCE OF HUGHES' NAVAL PLAN IMMINENT

Japan Expected to Give Up Fight For 70 Per Cent Proportion

END BY CHRISTMAS

France to Press Demands—British to Take Up Submarine Question—China Wants Troops Removed.

Washington, Nov. 29.—Acceptance by Great Britain and Japan of the Hughes naval ratio plan appeared imminent tonight, as the conference on the lamitation of armament swung into its third week.

American sources reported a substantial agreement on the basis of the Hughes formula, although indications were that Japan, before yielding, would make a final stand for a larger share of capital ships.

In the midst of this general optimism, however, it was authoritatively reported that the French delegates are preparing to present within a few days a formal demand for a capital ship tonnage equal to that allowed Japan, and are seeking Italian support.

The naval experts of the five powers will meet tomorrow and are expected to draft their formal report to the conference.

The British delegates in conference with the representatives of the dominions were reported still holding out against submarines, but are expected to give ground on the final showdown.

The Far Eastern committee heard demands of China for the removal of foreign troops. It accepted, formally, the principle of abolishing foreign postoffices. and took up questions of extra territoriality.

Secretary Hughes asserted that the conference was far ahead of its schedule. Numbers of delegates are tentatively arranging to depart before Christmas.

There was renewed discussion of the need for a subsequent conference to deal with problems of foreign debts and international economic conditions.

Washington, Nov. 29.—The optimistic reports of the last few days regarding the naval reduction situation were confirmed emphatically today by high American officials. Formal announcement of agreement by England, Japan and the United States on the Hughes 5-5-3 ratio is to be expected shortly, perhaps through the medium of an open session of the conference.

This is the status of naval affairs tonight despite a statement from Vice Admiral Kanji Kato, chief naval adviser of the Japanese delegation, (who is not to be confused with Admiral Baron Kato) that the Japanese still adhere to their claim that the ratio should be 7 for Japan to ten each for Great Britain and the United States.

The understanding here tonight, based not only on statements from authoritative American sources but from reliable Japanese sources, is that while Japan may argue all the way for a 10-10-7 ratio, when she reaches the line of final decision she will agree to the ratio proposed in the Hughes plan. In other words, Japanese know that the ratio she wants will not be accepted and is prepared to accept the Hughes ratio after she has made her fight.

Americans hold that the Hughes ratio of 5-5-3 rests upon a solid rock now, because examination of the existing tonnage of the three big navies by the experts has disclosed 5-5-3 is the actual existing ratio. The facts are with the American position, authoritative spokesmen declared today. If 5-5-3 is the existing ratio, then, say the American spokesmen, the 5-5-3 ratio must stand after the reductions are made, and that means the Hughes plan.

The Japanese argument for a higher ratio must proceed, it appears, from one of two premises:

1. That in computing existing tonnage only ships in service should be considered and not those under construction, as in the Hughes plan. If only ships in service were considered, it is stated, the Japanese would be able to make out a better case for 10-10-7 as the existing ratio.

2. That even if it should be demonstrated that 5-5-3 is, in fact, the existing ratio, Japan's defensive needs are such that she should be allowed the higher ratio—that the increase from six to seven would mean little to Great Britain or the United States, but a vast deal to Japan.

It is accepted that arguments based on either of these premises will fail if offered. The point can be made against each that it is in violation of the acceptance "in principle" of the Hughes plan, which came from both the British and the Japanese at the first open session of the conference after the Hughes plan was submitted.

WASHINGTON DAY BY DAY

(From our Special Correspondent.)

Washington, Nov. 29.—Delegates to the arms conference are rushing the naval agreement ahead of all other things in the hope that the nations may agree on this at the earliest possible moment so that the public may be encouraged by tangible and concrete results while the tedious work of considering Far Eastern matters is under way.

American naval experts are frank in their opinion that those who forecast a naval agreement this week are too optimistic. They hardly expect one for ten days at least and it may be two weeks before the naval committee can reconcile the many differences that now exist between the powers. In fact, the best information obtainable from Japan sources today is that the managers of that delegation to the arms conference are in a condition of "deadlock" over the question of naval disarmament, especially as it applies to the ratio set aside by the plan of Secretary of State Hughes. The Japanese delegates, headed by Admiral Baron Kato, upon advice from Tokyo, are said to be inclined to insist that the ratio demanded by the head of the American delegation in so far as capital ships are concerned, should be increased so as to give Japan a greater naval strength in first line battleships than is proposed in the Hughes proposal.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and a member of the Advisory Committee for America to the arms conference did not have his pass to gain entrance to the Navy Department building yesterday afternoon where the session of the conference was taking place. He ran up against the majesty of the law in the person of a perfectly good private in the marine corps. Gompers tried to explain who he was. His identity was unknown to the marine. He argued with the "devil Dog" but to no avail Gompers was about to leave the Navy Building when along came Under Secretary of State Fletcher, also a member of the Advisory Committee.

"Will you identify me?" queried Gompers to the State Department official.

"Of course I will. This is Mr. Gompers, head of the American Federation of Labor appointed by the President as a member of the Advisory Committee to attend its session today." said Mr. Feltcher to the immovable sentry on guard.

Without a word, the marine came to salute and Gompers passed by. The next time he promises to have his identification card with him. Apparently, the marines guarding the Navy Department building are not on to the signs of the union and recognize only such authority vested in the little pasteboards issued by their superior officers.

Watching over the interests of 50,000,000 inhabitants of the scattered islands of the Dutch East Indies, the Netherlands delegation are following with care the conferences on the Far East and the Pacific. The Netherlands government and people have high hopes for world peace and security as a result of the present discussions it was stated in Netherlands circles here today. Holland has a vital interest not merely in peace in the Pacific but in good will along the Rhine and her delegates are impressed by President Harding's intention to extend the scope of the conferences so as to admit an exposition of the German problem and German difficulties. By a coincidence, the head of the Netherlands delegation is also the president of the League of Nations, but at the delegation headquarters the most sympathetic interest was shown in the idea of the President's Association of Nations.

"Details, however, would have to be worked out," it was said, "before any deliberate opinion could be forecast."

It can be stated on the highest authority that there is no intention on the part of President Harding to invite Germany into the conference on the limitation of armaments and Pacific and Far Eastrn questions. On the contrary, neither Germany nor any other nation will be asked into this conference, and there is no official or unofficial statement on the subjct to justify the conclusion that any other nation would be invited.

URGE SPEEDY IMPROVEMENT OF ROADWAY

Want North Fairfax Street Improved Before Winter

CIVIC BUREAU OF C. C.

Give Approval to Work of Improving Sidewalks and Favor Continuation of Work.

An interesting meeting of the Civic Bureau of the Chamber of Commerce was held last night. Notwithstanding the rain there was a good sized attendance, showing their interest in civic improvements. Members of the bureau expressed gratification with the effects of the city authorities toward improving the sidewalks of the city. It, however, was pointed out that there are many more sidewalks in need of repairs in various sections of the city, and hope was expressed by the committee of this organization that the work will be continued.

Owing to the untiring efforts of the local manager of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone company, it was announced, that the complaints regarding the service are now almost negligible.

A matter of paramount importance, it was stated, which should ge given right of way over everything else is the improvement of North Fairfax street extended where are located some of the leading industrial plants of the city which give employment to a large number of hands. Those present expressed themselves as in favor of leaving no stone unturned to see that the employees at these plans have a proper thoroughfare by which they can go to their places of employment without any undue hardships. It also was pointed out that the industries here should have every encouragement possible, and now that winter soon will ge here it was urged that the city undertake this work without further delay inasmuch as the funds for the work have been approriated by city council.

Twenty-Fifth Anniversary

Edward B. Walker Completes His 25th Year Of Service With Gazette

There are many things to which The Gazette, in its career of one hundred and thirty-seven years may point with pride. Faithfuraess and long service of its employees is one of these things. Today marks the twenty-fifth anniversary of the employment of Mr. Edward B. Walker, who for many of these twenty-five years has handled the circulation of the paper in a quiet, efficient manner that has gained and retained for him the confidence of his employers, and the friendship of the patrons of the paper with whom he comes in daily contact.

Not so long ago the Gazette noted the fiftieth anniversary of the employment of another of its staff who remained with the paper until his deeply regretted death. May Mr. Walker eclipse the record of the late Luther Thompson.

The Baptist Meetings

Interest Manifested In Evangelist Services Conducted by Rev. Mr. Brannock

The meeting last evening at the First Baptist Church was quite largely attended. The chorus choir rendered fine service, and the congregational singing was spirited. Rev. Mr. Brannock spoke very effectively concerning the crowds that gathered about the Cross of Christ, as representing the different types in the world today.

Emphasis is being placed in these meetings, upon the work of the Holy Spirit. No high pressure methods are used there is a simple presentation of the gospel and a quiet invitation.

The topic of this evening is to be: "The Wooing of the Master." Mr. Brannock is a man among men and shows great heart power in the delivery of his messages. All are cordially invited.

VIRGINIA NEWS PARAGRAPHED

Richmond,—Reports made by the managers of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company in Virginia to C. H. Weber division manager, with headquarters in Richmond, indicate a slow but gradual improvement in business conditions in the State. The coming of cooler weather has stimulated the purchase of winter merchandise to some extent, and stocks on hand are from 70 to 80 per cent normal.

Spotsylvania, —Under the direction of the State Highway Commissioner, there has been under construction for some months a State highway in Spotsylvania County beginning at Chancellorsville and running along the route of the old Spotsylvania and Culpeper Turnpike to the Wilderness Store, and from thence to Germanna Bridge in Orange County, thence to the Culpeper courthouse, covering a distance of some 25 miles.

South Boston,—The Planters and Merchants National Bank has just installed a burglar proof vault with one of the most modern doors and safety combinations in the State. The vault is constructed of re-enforced concrete, and is lined with steel constructed with layers of torch proof and drill proof steel alternating.

Richmond—The visit of Count de Chambrun, great grandson of General Lafayette, to Richmond, on November 23, as one of Marshal Ferdinand Foch's party brings to the mind's eye pictures of the stirring events of more than a century and a half ago, when young Lafayette figured in the harrowing events which led up to the surrender of Lord Cornwallis, at Yorktown, when the sunbeams of liberty crept over the hills of Virginia and spread throughout the land of the free. Following the gloomy, although glorious days of the Revolution, after Marquis de Fafayette had suffered political indignities at the hands of his country men, and had returned from exile, Richmond was again gladened by a visit from General Lafayette, and later he was accorded high honors by the Legislature of Virginia, feted and entertained by the people.

Lynchburg—The United States marines doing duty on the postal cars now are ubiquitous. If you do not think so, watch the change that has come over the handling of the mails at terminals and the way men who do the handling come up to the notch These marines take nothing for granted. officials and porters have found that it is not a sane sound policy to go poking about a mail car any longer without sufficient identification about to let the marine guard on a mail car know that you are attending to business. The marines are on practically all of the through trains passing here, and the postal clerks and transfer porters will vouch for the statement that they are right on the job.

Winchester—Bandits and thugs continue their bold and daring exploits notwithstanding the vigilance of police officers on motorcycles and afoot. Last night Roy Gearing, of Woodstock, here for the theater, reported the theft of a large automobile from in front of the City Hall, which houses the police station. It was found this morning along the Shenandoah Valley Pike, near Middeltown, where it had been abandoned. The lights still were burning. An eastern suburban citizen reported some one had carried several beehives to a vacant lot, poured water on the bees to prevent them from stinging, and then got away with all of his honey. A gardener of the same neighborhood, who went out to dig his sweet potatoes discovered that the job had been done th night before by thieves. The robbing of hen roosts has become quite common.

Richmond—The death in Madison County, of James Edwin Madison has brought to light the fact that the Madisons at one time lived at Woodberry Forest. The original residence of General Madison is still there. It is said that this house was planned by three Presidents of the United States. At a dinner given by General Madison there were present Thomas Jefferson, James Monroe and James Madison. General Madison told them that he wanted to build a new house and asked them if they could give any advice as to plans. The three Presidents put their heads together and planned the house that is now at Woodberry.

DEBT PAYMENTS TO PUT EUROPE ON ITS FEET

Plan For Settling of Obligations Outlined by Frank A. Vanderlip

BANKER URGES DELAY

Would Insist Loans be Acknowledged By Allies As Preliminary to Plan.

New York, Nov. 29.—Recognition by the allies of their $11,000,000,000 debt to America, as a just debt, agreement by this country to easy payments, and the money thus repaid to be used in rehabilitating Europe, was a plan proposed tonight by Frank A. Vanderlip, New York banker, for settling the obligations of the war.

Mr. Vanderlip, who returned recently from Europe, where he made an exhaustive study of economic conditions, spoke before the Economic Club. He said he had discussed the debt with the leading responsible government ministers and financiers of Europe, and nearly every nation admitted inability to pay.

Mr. Vanderlip also declared that the treaty of Versailles was "the most unwise document ever struck off from the mind of man."

Before the world could be restored to normal conditions, he said, the treaty would have to be rewritten and the map of Europe redrawn. The speaker asserted that Germany would not be able to meet her indemnity payments and that when she failed to meet them anything might happen, "from a revolution in Germany to the breakdown of civilization in western Europe."

As a remedy other than the redrafting of the treaty and the redrawing of the map, he suggested a federalized Europe, "something like a united states of Europe."

The United States would be hurt as much by the rapid receipt of payment in the form of goods, the only possible form of payment in view of the demoralization of foreign exchange, he said, as the allied debtors would be harmed in making the payment.

"The full consequences would be profound," he said, "if the payments could be made and were made with any degree of promptness. We need not look further than to contemplate the receipt of $500,000,000 a year of interest. If that came in the form of goods, our industrial situation would be upset in a way and to an extent we have not heretofore experienced. The effect upon our labor situation and the consequent social problems which would be raised would be menacing."

As the first postulate in his plan Mr. Vanderlip said he would lay down the principle that the allied debt was a just debt, legally and morally, and whether it could be paid or not it should be cheerfully and gratefully acknowledged as a just debt.

"Next, I would want America to be both an intelligent and a lenient creditor," he continued. "Terms of payment ought to be adapted to the means of our debtors. In that respect we should take the action of the allies in fixing the terms of the indemnity as an example to be avoided rather than followed.

"The crux of my plan would lie in the disposition of the payments.

"I would have America make a beaujeste, a grand gesture in international relationship. While demanding that the payment be made, I would have America say that she is prepared for the present to forego the receipt of it."

Concerning what should be done with the money paid back Mr. Vanderlip said:

"I would like to see every dollar that can ever be paid to us by our debtors for years to come devoted to the rehabilitation of European civilization. It is only through such rehabilitation that these debts can ever conceivably be paid. It is only through the rehabilitation of European civilization that America can ever conceivable realize in full measure her destiny or can expect a full measure of prosperity for her people."

HARVEY'S SPEECH

Harding, at Washington, is talking to the world. Harvey, at Liverpool, is talking to Englishmen. Harding says, "no war!" Harvey says, "no alliance!" The press of the country reflects all the prismatic shades of public opinion. A Cincinnati Republican organ says: "Ambassador Harvey does well to speak frankly that which we are glad to impress on all the world." And the New York Times says, "Harvey talks with the zeal of a country editor attacking an effete aristocrat of Europe."

We are surprised, and we frankly confess we ought not to be, when our own Richmond Times-Dispatch says of Harvey's speech, that "it reflects the mind of the American people!" Our Richmond contemporary flies the Democratic flag at its mast head. But alas! only too often it gives aid and comfort to the enemy.

However, there can be no question that a monkey-and-parrot time of it is casting its shadow on the Washington Conference. You remember what the parrot told its mistress, upon her return home, after leaving a pet parrot and a pet monkey alone in the room. The parrot, stripped of all its feathers, one eye closed, one claw chewed up, and hanging on by the other to the gas jet, laconically described to its mistress in one short sentence what had occurred during her absence!

If only Ambassador Harvey would remember that speech is silver and silence is gold—and that this country is on a gold basis!

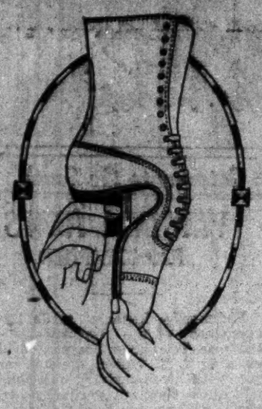
WATSON AND THE ARMY

Senator Watson has found a serious indictment against the American army in France. If his charges are true there needs drastic revision in the system. If they are not true, then the Senator merits severe punishment in one form or another.

The matter is to be sifted by a senate committee. We trust it will be both speedy and exhaustive. The proof that Senator Watson has offered thus far, it is true, is flimsy and inconsequential. But it must be that he has something of a more solid nature upon which he has built his superstruction of accusation. He says he has photographs of the gallows upon which men were hung without hearing or trial. This, of course, is absurdity itself. It is analagous to Lord Macaulay's legend of the defense of a Roman bridge; he says, "if you think I am lying, there is the bridge, still standing; go and look at it if you don't believe me!"

Senator Watson is a very able man. But is likewise very erratic. If he cannot substantiate his statements as to the terrible abuses with which he charges the officers of the army, then there is no punishment too severe within the limits of the law.

The American army itself is on trial. We shall watch the progress of the hearings before the committee with more than usual interest.



Good Looks Depend on Comfort

Did you ever stop to think how your looks and your personality can be affected by a pair of shoes?

Badly shaped shoes cause a nervous tension which may mar the face, little by little, with wrinkles, and make the muscles sag around the mouth.

The annoying, nagging effect of shoes which do not harmonize with your feet makes your facial expression less attractive than it could if "your feet were off your mind."

Very high heels sometimes bring serious injury on the internal organs of natural balance and an unnatural because the body is tilted forward out strain results. This causes much unhappiness and loss of looks.

Wear Cantilever Shoes and let their comfort give to the face a happy expression, to the disposition a pleasantness which men admire, to the physique a strengthening tonic which exercise develops. Cantilevers are good looking shoes, too.

Rheumatism Can Be Cured!

But You Must Clear Your Blood of Waste Products.

Lack of exercise and improper diet causes waste products to accumulate in the blood. You will at once realize that unless the blood is pure, some part of the body will become diseased.

Rheumatism, with its pain and agony, is one of the most serious diseases caused by waste products in the blood. You know, of course, the blood is not confined alone to the arteries and veins. It passes out of these channels to all parts of the body. This is how sediments or waste products are deposited in the muscles and joints. Genuine relief can be had only by correcting the basic trouble—waste products.

Thousands and thousands of men and women during the past 50 years have cleared their blood of waste products with S. S. S. It is the ideal remedy for rheumatism, because it removes the poisonous waste matter which is causing the trouble. There are no bad after effects and the result is wonderful. Begin taking S. S. S. today and write for 56 page illustrated booklet, "Facts About the Blood"—free.

Personal medical advice, without charge, may also be had by sending a complete description of your case. Address Chief Medical Director, Swift Specific Co., 731 S. S. S. Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga. All good drug stores sell S. S. S.

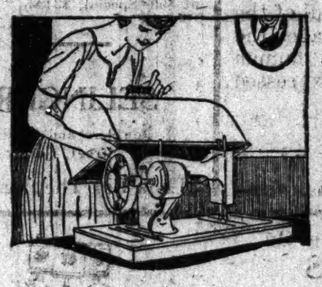
MAKE IT AN ALL ELECTRICAL MERRY CHRISTMAS

For Mother and Wife

An electric iron will enlighten her work and save her many hours.
What more appropriate gift than an electric cleaner. It will insure a clean house without the tiresome pushing of the broom.



An electric sewing machine is just the thing to make all the kiddies rompers.

Delicious coffee made at the table will save many steps, as well as to beautify the table.

For the Girl

An electric curling iron will reflect the giver throughout the year. A beautiful curler which keeps her looking at her best on all occasions.

If she is at school she will appreciate a chafing dish. Ideal for making tasty fudge and other boarding school delicacies.

For she who travels a small travelers iron will certainly earn heartfelt gratitude. The very thing for pressing mussed up frocks after unpacking.
Let us give you some other gift suggestions for mother, brother, dad and sister or sweetheart, beau, and friends.

SPORTS

The visitors squad is composed of peers of the sport and a contest promising of all the excitement needed in a good basket ball game is expected. The Eagle A. C. defeated the Triangle Sport Club by the score of 26 to 6. The Eagles backfield composed of Connor at quarter, Bennett in full and Lee and Bayliss at right and left half backs is the best around this section. Each of these men scored a touchdown each. Next Sunday the Eagles will meet the Virginia Midgets in the 110 pound championship. The Eagles also have a star basket ball team and all teams who have a floor and average 120 pounds, call Alexandria 691 and ask for Manager C. E. Robey.

We charge no admission at our games which entertained many interested spectators.

MRS. MARY WILHELM,
Pittsburg, Pa.

"No matter what I should say about Tanlac, it wouldn't be half good enough," said Mrs. Mary Wilhelm, 716 Mint Way, South Side, Pittsburg, Pa.

"I never dreamed it possible for a medicine to restore me to the splendid health I now enjoy. In fact, I had almost resigned myself to being an invalid, as I could see I was losing weight and strength every day, and no relief was in sight. For three years stomach trouble, headaches and nervousness made my life miserable.

"The first bottle of Tanlac acted almost like magic and it wasn't long until I was so well and strong that I could hardly realize I had ever known a sick day. I am like a different person in every way now, eating, sleeping, feeling and looking better than in years."

Tanlac is sold in Alexandria by Edgar Warfield, Jr., and all leading druggists elsewhere.

IN BED EIGHT MONTHS

Cause—Change of Life. How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Got Me Up

Afton, Tenn. —"I want other suffering women to know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. During the Change of Life I was in bed for eight months and had two good doctors treating me but they did me no good. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I did, and in a short time I felt better. I had all kinds of bad spells, but they all left me. Now when I feel weak and nervous I take the Vegetable Compound and it always does me good. I wish all women would try it during the Change of Life for I know it will do them good. If you think it will induce some one to try the Vegetable Compound you may publish this letter." —Mrs. A. KELLER, Afton, Tennessee.

Women from forty-five to fifty years of age should take warning from such symptoms as heat flashes, palpitation of the heart, smothering or fainting spells, or spots before the eyes, and prepare their system for this perfectly natural change by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has helped many, many women through this trying period, just as it did Mrs. Keller.

The Popular "USCO" TREAD 30 x 3½

$10.90

THE American public knows that United States Tires are never marketed on "price."

People look to the makers of U. S. Tires for quality traditions. They do not want to see a policy of superiority nibbled away for the sake of a mere price appeal.

So we say this to all those loyal followers of U. S. Tires—

Do not buy the 30 x 3½ "Usco" Tread because of its new price of $10.90.

Buy it because it is the greatest money's worth on earth today.

Buy it because of honest quality as against "bargain offers", "inside discounts" and "special trades."

An outstanding product—marked with the maker's name—the retail price quoted in plain figures.

A challenge to the tire-trader who would rather sell you an unknown tire on the basis of "so much off list"—and let you find out its real value afterward.

Prices on all U. S. Tires and Tubes Reduced Nov. 10th. Ask your dealer.

ITALIAN PRINTERS TO STRIKE

Will Tie Up Newspapers in Protest to Killing of Miller

Rome, Nov. 28.—Italy will be without newspapers Monday following a decision of the printers' union to declare a general strike in protest against the killing by Fascisti at Triest last week of Signor Miller, president of the Triest Typographers' Union.

The killing of Miller has caused widespread indignation owing to the manner in which the deed was committed.

The Fascisti captured Miller and forcibly took him to an isolated spot, where several bullets were fired into his body. Then his assailants left the wounded man to die. A companion of Miller suffered a similar fate.

At Eight Miles an Hour, or Eighty
WHETHER crawling along at a snail's pace in congested traffic or hitting the high spots on an open country road, "Standard" Motor Gasoline will fire smoothly and burn up completely.
That is why its sales are climbing out of all proportion to the increase in total gasoline consumption.
Experienced drivers who have tried a filling of the improved "Standard" Motor Gasoline would cheerfully go far out of their way to place repeat orders.
But that is not necessary. Reliable dealers handling this ideally balanced motor fuel are to be found on both sides of the highway wherever you travel. They charge no more for "Standard" Motor Gasoline than others ask for inferior grades masquerading under fanciful names.
If your motor is sluggish have the carbon cleaned from cylinders and spark plugs, empty the old diluted oil from your crank case, and after washing with a pint or so of kerosene, fill with POLARINE of the grade specified for your car. Then put "Standard" Motor Gasoline into your fuel tank and see what a good car can do.

CALOMEL SALIVATES EVEN WHEN CAREFUL

Treacherous Drug Can Not Be Trusted and Next Dose may start Trouble

Calomel is dangerous. It may salivate you and make you suffer fearfully from soreness of gums, tenderness of jaws and teeth, swollen tongue and excessive saliva dribbling from the mouth. Don't trust calomel. It is mercury; quicksilver.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomen. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tone you will wake up feeling great. No salts necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and can not salviate.
